

Press Release

The On Saturday June 18th, 2011, twenty superstar scholastic players agreed to play in the Kansas City Chess Foundation Invitational event held at the Plaza Branch of the Kansas City Library.

The students that represented the field were taken from parts of Kansas and Missouri. There were kids who regularly win local competitions. There were players who've won state championships and some that have won national events or place very high at those events. You could say it was a strong field for the two sections.

Here were the results: USCF Crosstable
